“ We never got to have an official goodbye, but not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I miss you more than words could ever describe. I only hope that you're proud of me and the accomplishments I have made thus far. I wish you were physically here with me to guide me and to help my growth continue. Because of you, I am the young woman I am today. I love you... forever and always grandma Jo-Ann.

“ To the loved ones left behind, you have my deepest condolences. JoAnn was a nice neighbor whom I applauded for taking in her granddaughters and grandson doing a wonderful job in raising them. She has to suffer no more. May GOD comfort you in your time of lost.

Sheila Abraham-Drake - December 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ We express our sincere sympathy to the family of our friend JoAnn. And find comfort in knowing that she is at peace, and no longer suffering the tragedies of this cruel world.
