“ I sincerely offer my condolence for Joanna Marchant. Times like this cause us sadness. Her death brings you face-to-face with the fact that she is gone too soon. So when a love one has passed, no matter who we are it is painful. God not only knows but he cares! Jesus said: "Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's knowledge. . . . You are worth more than many sparrows."(Matthew 10:29, 31). He knows your sorrow and pain. Since emotions tests our very fiber, be strong, others share your grief. "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May you find comfort and relief during this sad period. Yet, celebrate the unforgettable memories you shared with Mrs. Marchant.

*Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow,
May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

“ We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during these difficult times people turn to the bible, two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:5. I hope that these scriptures are comforting to you.
