“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ To the family of Jocelyn Collier, our sither-in-law. Following the word of the Lord Jesus Christ. We fasted and prayed, for a healing on this side, but God has a master plan. His will be done. God healed her for the other side. We will forever love, and miss her. To her son, and daughters, mother, brother, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, well loved grandchildren, our brother, and other love ones, and friends. We give our heart felt sympathy. “ Dear Collier Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh even with the passage of time. I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms 83:18, Psalms 65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians 4:7)
