“ Joe was a gentle giant; kind, soft spoken, generous and protective. He knew how to begin something and stick with it to perfection, hence his golf success and marriage. Joe was a "gem". He is sorely missed. My prayers are with his wife and children as they deal with his physical absence on earth

“ *To the Green Family,
We are so sorry to hear about Joe's passing. Our prayers are with you.
What a intelligent, interesting, nice, friendly, (I could go on and on) man he was. It was always a pleasure to see him walk through our door.
In the past few years he would come to the course just to practice on the putting green and boy could he make those putts.
We all enjoyed talking and laughing with him. He will really be missed, but will be remembered here forever.*

“ To the Green Family,
I will be praying for your strength as you celebrate the life and legacy of Mr. Joe Green. The privilege of meeting, working with, and the council that I received from Joe has and will continue to be a blessing on my life.

He was a spiritual father who challenged me to hold on my faith in the Lord within the work place. He was a person that I could confide in as I dealt with the challenging opportunities as a young black female in the skilled trades areas and later the managing area of the company. I thank God for people of his character who encouraged me to be all that I could be 'in the name of Jesus, the Christ'.

His living was not in vain, Joe allowed God to use him to touch many people! I love you and you know that God loves you!

Prayerfully yours,
Joyce McCain

“ Janice,

I know that there is no love greater than the love you had for your father. You did everything that you could do to take care of your dad. You made sure he had the best care.

You loved your father; he has gone to be with God who needed another angel. God chose your dad. Remember your good times and I am sure there were many.

I am praying for you and your mother in your time of grief.

Love ya,

Jimmie and Brenda (Ya Ya Sister, forever)
