“ *Dear Anderson Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.*

To the Anderson family I am sorry to hear of your loss. Moore street wont be the same with Red, David and man gone. we had some good times. we could play all day until the street lights came on. Mrs. Anderson thank you for being that beautiful person that you are. you care about other kids just like we were yours. God will wipe the tears away. Nothing is to hard for God. Johanna and Margie I love you and the rest of the family. I have you in my prayers. Just keep saying Lord I know you been so good over and over again. love you Cookie Jones.
