Mr. John Belk passed away peacefully at Heritage Manor in Flint Michigan on Tuesday April 3, 2018 at 81 years of age. Mr. Belk was born on October 17, 1936 in Mariana, Arkansas to James Percy and Clemmie (Smith) Belk. He made his home in Flint, Michigan where his union in marriage to Brenda Buchanan produced a beautiful daughter, Jacqueline Belk. After the passage of many years Mr. Belk was later united in marriage to the love of his life, Sherron Johnson. The couple resided in Flint for the remainder of his life. John lived a quiet and peaceful life surrounded by good friends and loving relatives. He loved to cook and enjoyed preparing tasty dishes for his family and friends. John was also a lover of good music which he spent many pleasant evenings listening to with special friends. He loved people and he occupied a special place in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Mr. John Belk leaves to cherish his memory: beloved wife, Sherron; daughter, Jacqueline; sister, Rosalie Bryant; brothers, James P. Jesse N. (Dorothy) and Isaiah Belk; a host of nephews and nieces including special nieces, Linda Pace, Lisa, Princess and Michelle Belk; as well as many special friends including, Eula (Lulu) Belk, Roosevelt Cameron (Ov), Arthur Crutchfield and Tyrone Cooper, a host of other good friends who were an integral part of his life.

Mr. Belk was preceded in death by his parents, James Percy and Clemmie Belk, brothers, Jasper Wilson, Arthur and Eddie Belk, and sister, Mattie Pace.
