“ Sending my Sincere Condolences and Love to my Sister -in- Love Doll, and my Loving Niece Johndrea, my Brother in Love Alex & Mary, Sis. Carolyn, my Niece's , Nephew's, and all of the DeLoach Families. Praying that God gives you the strength that you'll need, at this most difficult time. John D, was so much fun to be around. He kept us laughing. Terry and I used to love to come over to your house, and sit on the front porch with you & Doll, and reminisce about old times. You had such a loving, down to earth spirit. You were like none other, and was one of a kind ❤️ We've had some fun days and good times. I shall always treasure those. You fought a good fight. But God knew best, when it was time to come on home 🙏 So take your well deserved rest 💔 We all love you, and miss you so much 🙏 RIH Big Brother ❤️

“ To Mrs. Narzree Deloach, and "entire" Deloach family: You have our heartfelt prayers and sympathy. Vernon Chapel has loss another soldier in its army of warriors. Mr. Deloach was a very dedicated Trustee for years and he loved it with a passion! He served, faithfully, until his health issues became the kind of challenge that would not allow him to continue in that office. Now, he rests from his labor. Family, take comfort in the Word that says: "... be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."- Revelations 2:10 If we all, faithfully, finish our courses, we will receive our crowns. So, we will see him when the morning comes. Until then family, "The Lord bless you and keep you...and give you peace."- Numbers 6:24-26 Charles and Willene Sumpter (of Vernon Chapel)

“ Sir John Deloach, was was a passionate man about sharing his roots, his southern upbringing, family, and life itself. Mr. D. Often, projected a hard exterior but, if you knew him, you could tell he had a heart of gold. These last years, our church family has lost some real knowledgeable "gems," whom will never be replaced, and Mr. Deloach being one of them. May God grant the entire, Deloach family, His strength, peace, love, and comfort during this trying time, and surround you with earthly angels too love on you, and be your help. Sincerely, Rev. Red., ReRe, and the entire Anthony family.
