“ To Mrs. Hall and Family,

I would like to offer my condolences during your time of grief. My prayer is that the Lord will continue to lift you up as He has done so many times before. Your strength comes from Him, and I know that He will sustain and keep you even in this your darkest hour. May you find peace and covering in the His spirit and divine grace in the auspices of His goodness.

“ To the Hall Family:

We would like to express our deepest sympathy in the loss of Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam lived a full life and seemed to always be full joy and happiness with his family and relatives. One special thing I truly admired and will hold in my memory about him was his ability to offer a positive word, encouragement and great advice to a young person. This meant a lot to me while growing up in Rison, AR. Regardless of where you were from or going he had something good to pass on to motivate you along your path. He was an avid sportsman and Daddy (Silas) enjoyed hunting with him during his visit to Arkansas.

We will be unable to attend the Service on Saturday. However, if there is anything that we can do, Aunt Oris, Stevie, please let us know.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the the death of your husband. I know that you have gone through quite a lot before now, as we have talked about previously. Please know that God is still where He has always been and He did not bring you this far to leave you. Please know too, that you have many friends who share in your grief at this time. Be encouraged, time has a way of easing the pain and sorrow.

“ To the family:

Sorry we were not able to be there. You are always in our prayers. Although we may not understand why things such as this happens, we hold in our heart that God knows what is best and He is in control of everything. God is there to help you through this difficult time in your lives and trust that He will see you through!

*We love you all,
