“ "Pa Odom", as I knew him, was a kind & gentle soul; like a gentle giant. From the first time I met him & every time there after he treated me like a part of the family. Pa Odom had a good heart and he loved his family very much. He had a passion for life, good food, great music and for one of his favorite past times; billiards. And he was very good at it, too. I've heard stories and seen him play, where he left his opponents, grown men, stammering for words at the end of the game. He was a good friend & a great father in-law. I'll surely miss him.
