“ Words cannot express the deepest sympathy that I feel for the Jackson family right now. My heart cries out to God on your behalf. Mainly that He will strengthen each and every one of you as He sees fit. Also that He will encourage your heart. But the Lord saw fit to let John Lee rest and for we are thankful. Thankful that He doesn't have to struggle with the day to day burdens of this life. Yes, we will truly miss him, seeing him in his van, telling us we don't know nothing about whatever we talking about, seeing his smile and enjoying his company. I love you all and wish that I could be there but you, John Lee and God knows my heart when it concerns you. I thank God once again for having the opportunity to share life's up and downs with you. Remember you are never to far away, God hears your prayers. May He comfort you and supply your every need in Christ Jesus. Be encouraged and stand strong, hold each other up as I will for you in prayer. Make your calling and election sure, what does that mean, know where you are going when you leave here. If your not saved, give your life to Christ and watch Him make a way for you. Amen.
