“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ the lord is my shepherd i shall not want; he maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters; he restoreth my soul;he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake; yea though i walk through the valley of the shadow of death i will fear no evil for thou art with me;thy rod and thy staff they comfort me; thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anoinest my head with oil; my cup runeth over; surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and i shall dwell in the house of the lord forever. i love you joann . i love all of the lindsey family

“ I cannot believe you are gone, Ray. I think of all the good times we had as kids and it makes me smile. We shared a birthday that will never be the same now that you're gone. I remember the time you fell off the Tarzan swing in Michigan City, the time you walked me to the house on Francis because I was afraid to walk alone, and the time we raced on our bicycles. You are loved and will be sorely missed, Ray. I will keep Uncle Jeff, my cousins, and your wife and sons in prayer. I love you.

“ It's almost unbelievable that you have been called on home to be with the Lord,It's never going to be the same coming to Flint,and not being able to see your smiling face...I remember the summers when I would visit, and the walks that we would take from Francis St. to Proctor. (we had fun) Ray, I miss you already, you are gone, but Never forgotten. My prayers are with the family, Uncle Jeff, Angie & the boys, they will be fine in Jesus name...Rest In Paradise dear Cousin Ray.....I Love You!

“ The joyful sounds of his laughter, the sincere smile from ear to ear, sport talks, dances to his own music and listens to others, loves his wife and children, loyal to God, happy with life: these are just a few things I will miss about Johnny Ray. I am so sorry for your loss. He was a wonderful man who adored his family and friends. A little piece of my heart broke when I heard about his death because I will miss his friendship. HOWEVER, I rejoice because I KNOW he LOVED GOD and Jesus. We talked. I am certain he is being embraced by the hands of the Lord. Stay strong and know he is always with you in spirit and memories.
