“ *Johnnie you really will be missed! I hate I missed your memorial service today because I had planned to be there for sure! We will always Love you Johnnie as the Stewart St Family! When you visited a year or so ago, my house on Stewart Ave, it touched me so much when you went across the street and ask the now owners of your Mothers house if you could please sit on your mothers porch one last time! I knew then that you weren't planning to be here much longer! I thought about you last week and said man I need to check on Johnnie I have not seen his truck lately going down Street st. Blowing the horn yelling out the window Gina! I would say back, Johnnie! We all had a deep deep Love for one another in this neighbor, Yes that Love ran really deep, no one can ever remove the Love we had for one another out out of our hearts! The Stewart Ave/ Dewey Family has always remained very tight! Well Johnnie you made it into Heaven Now and that definitely isn't a bad place for sure! You are now with you sweet Momma Mrs. Anna Lee! I bit that was a grand reunion right after you greeted Jesus! You will truly be miss especially that laughter and beautiful smile! We cried that last day that you visited my husband bitten sweet memories of your mom and mine mom and dad! To Willie, Pam, Sherry your Wife and Kids/ Grands, May God Grant all of you piece until you see our Big Brother Johnnie again in Jesus Precious Name! Amen! “ To the Lotts Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
