My cousin, Johnnie Mae Pittman, though it's been a few years since we've seen each other, I still remember clearly when you were just a young kid in P.B., ARK, we lived next door to each other and would often play together, our family, was very close and in growing up together, we learned to love and care for each other, RIP Johnnie Mae, you will be missed, gone, but not forgotten, you are now resting in the arms of the Lord, he will keep you, tell Aunt Naomi, Paulette and all the other relatives that they are remembered and missed here on earth, but that one day, we all will be joined in the bosom of the Lord...Prayers for the family on this very somber occasion!
