“ Today marks 6 years since we loss such a great person my grandpa who was a father, uncle, brother and even great grandpa. Today he would have been 86 and I'm sure if he was still around he would be celebrating with his great gran-daughter Skylar just because they share the same day it would have been perfect. Yes I am missing this strange man a lot. I remember when I was a little girl he would put his wet cigars to mine and my cousins mouth and it was so yucky and we would just laugh. He had this thing he would ask for a kiss and lick our faces and of course we would say eww and disgusting lol but it was something that was shared with all the grands that were around he was just a strange funny man. I use to be home with him while my siblings and cousins would be in school him and I would take rides about 6-7am to pick up empty bottles by the side of the road why I don't know. My grandpa use to find shoes that were his exact size, cd's, casset tapes, hats and other trinkets just while driving around, I miss him today and every day and I know as long as I have all these memories in my heart and mind he will forever live on.. RIP
