Mr. Joseph Brutus Jackson was born March 10, 1952 in Mount Hope, West Virginia, the son of Margaret Dolares Jackson. Joseph was a lifetime resident of Flint, Michigan. He retired at the age of 65 and dedicated most of his time caring for his mother and family. Joseph was a devoted son, brother, uncle, cousin and friend. He was a man of great character, generous, caring and selfless. His devotion to his family was the foundation of his actions-the anchor that define and shaped his life. Joseph was dependable, the personal sacrifices he made to uplift and encourage those that he loved was unconditional. He was not materialistic, nor did he live to impress others. Joseph cared enough for others to act and follow through. If you needed advice, an empathetic ear, a shoulder to lean on or monetary need he was always a phone call away. He lived a principled life underpinned by a strong sense of right and wrong. Joseph spoke out when it really counted. He was a wise man and shared his expertise with others. Joseph worked hard and consistently. He remained a student of life. Joseph loved to read books and study philosophy. He will always be remembered with respect, admiration and love. His life was a blessing, his memory was a treasure. He is loved beyond words and missed beyond measure. The pages of his book will never be closed. Mr. Joseph Brutus Jackson leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Margaret Jackson; 2 sisters; 3 brothers; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins including special cousin, Sidney Jackson of Mount Hope, WV. Mr. Jackson is gone to join in heaven his grandparents; 3 sister, Joan Jackson, Patricia Hambrick and Jacqueline (Collins) Jackson; and special cousin, Loretta Ann Copeland.
