“ I remember living on Maple St as an active 3 year old. MaDear fixed me a big dinner. i could not eat everything, so I feed most of my food to the dog. The dog could not eat any more and MaDear found out. She fixed me another plate and told me I could not move until it was eatten. i was there for a long time. However, my uncle Joe would take huge bites out of that plate every time he walked by the table. He was always my hero. Rest in Peace my dear Uncle.

Several historical events happened on October 2--but for us nothing more relevant than October 2, 1949 because Mr. Joe Langston was born. But at that very moment June 17,2015 was predestine we just didn't know it. Joe had many roles in life and took self-importance in being all a man could be, he was a father, God father, step father, dad, brother, son, cousin, friend and husband but my favorite is his role as brother-in-law. It wasn't the law for him to uphold being a brother he just did it. He rocked this role over and beyond what the average person does with such a title. I can't put it all here but those that know you Love you and appreciate all you gave. When Joe touched your life, you knew it, because he had such charisma. He was always pleasant and would greet you with a smile and conversation. When he gave his life to Christ; that tripled his magnetism and enlarged his heart for others. He had a good soul. Honor! Well done brother-in-law well done
