.Joe was born in Kemper, Mississippi on March 13, 1939, the son of the late Tommie and Annie Peterson. Joe joined the military in 1959 and proudly served his country for 6 years. He met his wife, Ann, in 1972 while they were both working at McLaren Hospital. The happiest moment of Joe's life was the birth of his son, Jeffrey, in 1977. Joe was a family man who loved spending time with his wife, son, daughter-in-law, and his two grand-daughters. He also loved attending gatherings with his brothers, Willie and Henry, and his sister, Dorothy, as well as his many nieces and nephews. Joe liked to garden and was very proud of his yard. He taught his son how to mow perfect lines into the grass, a tradition continued today by his grand-daughter. He was famous for his home-made mac-n-cheese, which was enjoyed by everyone at family get-togethers. Joe enjoyed casino trips with his family and was a connoisseur of Blues music. B.B. King and Bobby Blue Bland were Joe's favorite artists.

He will be greatly cherished by those he left behind: wife of 41 years, Ann Peterson; son, Jeffrey A. Peterson, daughter-in-law, Bethany Peterson, granddaughters, Neeley and Natalie Peterson; Brother, Willie J. Peterson and his partner Vera King; Sister, Dorothy Sanders; Brother, Henry Peterson; In-Laws, Terry and Kathy Rinks and family; as well as a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ Joe Peterson was our friend and a huge part of our family. Our friendship started years ago when Joe and Ann's son, Jeffrey, met our daughter, Bethany, and so our friendship began. We shared our children, who married, and then we had the pleasure of being there when our granddaughters were born and sharing our grandchildren together as they grew. The four of us have spent countless Holidays, School functions, and recitals over the years. Our fondest memories of Joe would have to be when year after year he dressed up in my Santa Suit and allowed me to pose pictures with the girls never complaining of how hot he probably was. He always made his special mac and cheese for every family gathering. Papa Joe,s mac and cheese was the best! Everyone in our family was the recipient of Joe's bear hugs. We know he was a great father to Jeffrey because Jeffrey is a great father to his girls! He was also a great Papa to our grandchildren. They will never forget the time spent with Papa Joe and are already recalling some of his stories that left an impression on their young lives. My entire family including nieces and nephews will miss you Joe Peterson. Rest in Peace!
