Ms. Josephine "Precious" Beamon was born January 27, 1982 in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Pastor James and Sis. Edna Beamon. She received Christ at an early age and was baptized at the Mt. While attending Baker College, Josephine worked as a Cashier for Meijer stores and Teller for Bank One. She was later promoted to Assistant Branch Manager at Saginaw and Wager Chase Bank, where she worked diligently for 15 years. Josephine finally decided it was time for a change and relocated to Raleigh, NC in April 2013. She worked various jobs until she found the one she loved,

She did most of her work, working for the Lord. Josephine was a member of the Morning Glory Missionary Baptist Church where the pastor is the Rev. James Beamon, her father. She served in every capacity of the church. Josephine was Choir Director, Church Accountant, Praise & Worship Leader, on the Kitchen Committee, Cleaning Committee and Evangelistic Committee. She later joined the Mt. Pisgah Missionary Baptist Church where the pastor is the Rev. Wallace Hill III, and joined the choir there as well. After relocating to Raleigh, NC, she joined the Wake Chapel Church where the pastor is the Rev. JJ Wilkins, Jr., where she served as an Usher and sang in the Mass Choir. Josephine had a voice from heaven and a heart of love. She will always be remembered for her smiling face, outrageous laugh, outgoing personality, but most of all her love for God. Josephine's hobbies were baking, reading, singing, and showing everyone how to do their lashes and makeup. She also enjoyed bowling and most of all spending time with family.
