“ Dear Auntie we just want to say that you have always been there for us no matter what the case may have been. Words cant express the way we feel about you. you touched so many hearts and i can go on and on but i remember what you told me when we were in the car and I got this im gonna make you proud we all are. Auntie i would be selfish to ask you to stay here cause i no he dont make no mistakes. Im glad your not suffering anymore cause i felt your pain. We will cherish all the memories you left us We love you so much now you can finally rest in peace see you on the other side. Love always and forever.
