

Mrs. Joyce Ann (Taylor) Jackson

November 25, 1950 - May 12, 2019

JACKSON, Mrs. Joyce Ann (Taylor) - Age 68, passed away Sunday, May 12, 2019 at her residence. Family hour 10:30 AM Saturday, May 18, 2019 at First Trinity Baptist Church, 1226 Beach St. with funeral service commencing at 11:00 AM, Pastor Ezra Tillman, officiating. Interment Gracelawn Community Cemetery, 5710 N. Saginaw St. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the church 10:30 AM Saturday. Mrs. Jackson will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd., and may be viewed 2:00 PM - 8:00 PM Friday.

Joyce Ann Taylor was born November 25, 1950 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas to JD Taylor and Dorothy Summers. She accepted Christ at an early age. The family moved to Michigan residing in Beecher. Joyce graduated from Beecher High School and was a member of the "Class of '69." She also attended Genesee Community College. Joyce worked at Consumers Energy and then went on to work 34 years at Mott Children's Health Center as a dental assistant. After retiring Joyce then began employment at the Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home. She was also a member on the Beecher Board of Education. She was a longtime member of First Trinity Missionary Baptist Church where she enjoyed singing in the choir

Joyce leaves to cherish her precious memories: 2 devoted sons, Juaron and J'on Jackson; and 2 grandchildren, Joshua Isiah and Amya Nikole Jackson, all of Beecher; mother, Dorothy Towns; 4 sisters, Marcella Oden, Mary Avant, Diane and Patricia Towns; 2 brothers, Michael Taylor and Tony Towns; special nephews, Dondrell, Donté, Tony “Boo” and a host of other nieces and nephews who affectionately referred to her as Aunt Jo.

Joyce loved everything Beecher and attended all of Beecher’s sporting events from elementary to high school. Her favorite NFL team was the Detroit Lions. She enjoyed playing solitaire, lawn work, crafting, home remodeling projects and the casino. Joyce was a mother to the entire Beecher community. She had a soft spot for children, teens, and those who others wouldn’t deal with and often referred to as “thugs” but She affectionately called them her ‘bad butts’ and took the time to engage in conversation with them and made them her own.

Joyce was preceded in death by: her father, J.D. Taylor; grandparents, Donnie Sr. and Hassie Summers; paternal grandmother, Rosie Taylor; step-father, Wiley Towns; grandchildren, Jaqualian and Aranece Jackson; special friend, Thetford Perry. Also many other family members and dear friends.

“ To the family, I offer my deepest sympathies. I know the pain of losing a mother. She will live on your hearts forever.

I fondly recall talking with Mrs. Jackson at so many open houses. The encounter that means the most to me though, was when she came to my mother's viewing. She supported the entire Beecher community and will be missed greatly.

“ To the family of
Mrs Joyce Ann (Taylor) Jackson
Gone But Not Forgotten
She was a one of a kind person, our best conversations was when ever we saw each other out we had to just stop and laughed. Then ask did you see him today? what did have smart to say? Who will I have now to help me with your "Uncle Donna" Then we went into our positive conversation, how we could get him back and that was another big laugh. I'll miss our laughs.

She had so much class and dignity about herself, and always ended our conversation with a big hug. 😭 Me and my kids are gonna miss you soo much Mrs. Jackson. 😇 Beecher Community has just endured such great pain and disbelief about this one. I just saw you a few weeks ago too, at a store out here in Beecher. I am soo glad that i got the chance to hug you for the very last time. 😭 Your Legacy and Endurance will most definitely carry on throughout these kids life. 😇 #FlyHighMrs.Jackson💖*

It is hard to believe we won't see her at our school and community events. I won't get my hug at the end of year rally or the pep talk at the start of next year. She loved these kids and her legacy will live on through the children and families she helped and nurtured in the Beecher School community. Her presence will be sorely missed, but her spirit, influence, and care have marked us for the better. Our prayers go out to her family in their time of loss.*
