

Mrs. Joyce A. Turner

February 24, 1937 - May 2, 2021

TURNER, Mrs. Joyce A. - Age 84, passed away Sunday, May 2, 2021 at Wellbridge of Grand Blanc in Grand Blanc, MI. Family hour 1:30 PM Thursday, June 3, 2021 from the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd., with funeral service commencing at 2:00 PM Pastor Kenneth Stewart officiating. Family and friends will assemble at the funeral home 1:30 PM Thursday. Mrs. Turner will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home and may be viewed from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM Wednesday.

Ms. Turner was born in Flint, MI on February 24, 1937, at 809 E. Spencer Street to Elizabeth Perkins and George Moten. She attended Flint schools: Parkland Elementary, Emerson Junior High, and old Northern High, graduating in 1955. Joyce married Homer Lee Turner in 1968, and the two enjoyed many wonderful times together with their children Olivia, Alphonso, Christopher, Jerome, Sharron and Tony. The family especially enjoyed fishing together. Prior to her illness, Joyce was active as a member of the Order of the Eastern Star – Marion Anderson #4 and member of the Hasselbring Senior Center, including the Hasselbring Hustlers and the H & L Hustlers. Joyce accepted Christ early in life. She was active in her membership at House of Prayer Baptist church, where she loved being a member of the choir, Progressive Women, Seniors on the Move and Youth Advisor. Joyce loved her brothers and sisters in Christ. She was always available when approached and especially cherished her role as Sunday School Teacher.

Joyce is survived by a host of nieces and nephews including special nieces Tracy Jackson of Lanham, MD; Darlia Singleton of Phenix City, AL, Sandra Bowman-Mosley of McDonough, GA; and nephew Michael David Adams of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Joyce will be deeply missed by very special friends Barbara Arline, Ida Sanders, Mr. & Mrs. Marvin (Cora) Gillium and Bonnie Grass.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents and was the last surviving sibling of sisters Patricia Nelson, Barbara Jackson, Elaine Battles; brothers George Moten and James Jones and Joyce's "special" sister, twin Joan Adams who predeceased Joyce in death by just several weeks.

A very special thank you to Bonnie Grass who was always available to assist Joyce at any time. We are eternally grateful for your love and compassion. The family would also like to extend a special thank you to the staffs of Wellbridge of Grand Blanc and Compassus Hospice for the affectionate and tender care that they provided.

“ Dear Aunt Joyce - No words can express my heartfelt joy of knowing you have reunited with your mother, brothers and sisters. It was unexpected that your home going would be so soon but I am not sadden nor am I tearful. I rejoice in knowing that our Father has called you home departure which leaves me with many memories to enjoy and relive.

Starting with our weekly chats and our trip to Hawaii with me pushing you around at the Dole Pineapple plantation and you unable to get up after sinking into the sand. My early days of visiting you at the house of Foss and you cooking delicious meals (as did Aunt Elaine who was always welcoming to me and my sisters). Our lunch with Marsha at the Olive Garden where you shared many photos of yourself modeling your creations (many laughs that day). You busting a move at the family picnic and of course your visit to see mom in Maryland before she passed. Lots of memories full of laughs that I shall treasure always. Farewell sweetie. With much love and admiration.

“ Anyone that spent any considerable amount of time at House of Prayer knew Sis. Turner. She was such a fearless woman of God who ensured that every kid that sat in her class knew who they were, and more importantly whose they were. She loved to teach, sing, and share the goodness of the Lord. She was so faithful to the work of the Lord and to the church. Through all of the tragedies she faced, she kept on singing, kept on praising, and kept on testifying of God's goodness. Prayers to her family during this most difficult time - the same God that she trusted in is the same God that will comfort you during this time.
