“ MEMORIES THAT FLOOD THE SOUL!

Our prayers & condolences are with the family & friends of Juan Francine Dye-Smith upon her recent demise!

Both of our families (Woods/Moore and Roberts) had/have close ties & deep affection for one another since the late 1930's. Such tradition was passed down to Juan and her family & we thank God how that bond is uninterrupted & tightly secured!

Juan's mother, the late Missionary Florence Moore, & my sister, Lula Mae Felder, were inseparable & like sisters since their early youth! Additionally, Florence's parents, the late Eld. & Sis. Europe (Gertrude) Woods introduced my mom/dad, James & Leatha Roberts, to the Apostolic Doctrine! Therefore, the memories, love & friendship shall never wane or wither with the process of time!

This loving, kind & industrious lady is now gone from our sight, but never from our hearts! She will forever be loved & missed! RIP, precious one!

“ There are view words that can provide comfort during this devastating time. I love my Aunt Juan! There were many times that we would laugh about her career should have been an attorney. She took me in when I was homeless in the 10th grade. The decision she made changed my life. I had two sisters and gained four. Lady, Moon, Niecy and Tina, were my sisters. From Michigan to California, they were always watching me and supporting me. I can't believe we lost another pillar of this family. Everyone believes that I was always an extrovert and out going. Well I wasn't. She made me develop social skills that gave me the vocabulary to land a beautiful wife and raise three magnificent children. I want to wrap my arms around the entire family during this very difficult time.
