“ Aunt Maxine, words cannot express the sorrow I am feeling as I know you are no longer with us, but the serenity that you are no longer in pain. You were so loved by your family. I will always remember the hugs, your smile and that contagious laugh of yours. I will miss our little talks and all of the encouragement you gave to me as I journeyed out of Michigan. I will always love you and you will always remain so special to me. May HE keep you in his care and rest peacefully in Heaven.

Love you, Pooh

“ To all family and friends, I have spent all my years knowing and sharing the love of whom I called Max or Aunt Max. I am comforted knowing that she is not in any more pain, and at the return of Jesus Christ she will forever be with the father. I will never forget her words of encouragement to me always. Last, I hope all who knew her understand that she has fought the good fight. Take care, and God Bless you all. Dr. Douglas Dwayne Scott (Dwayne)

“ Sheila, Mike, and Marvin I am sending you every prayer of strength, comfort and peace that God can grant during this time. Mother Evans was truly the epitome of love and faith that could be in human form. It never ceased that whenever I came into her presence, I always left feeling stronger and more loved than I did before. She always took ownership of me by calling me "My Wendy" whenever she saw me. Her enormous love hugs literally gave me regenerated peace and she always smelled like a beautiful array of sunshine. Her hugs gave young women all over Ebenezer Ministries the sense of being with a real Momma! She will surely be missed. Be strong in the LORD and in the power of HIS might!

“My Dear Family: My heart is with you at this time. It is so much easier for me to say good-bye to our loved ones when I am confident that they are secure in their faith in Christ Jesus. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:” (Ephesians 2:8). Aunt Mac claimed her gift a long time ago, and it enabled her to live a beautiful life, to endure hard things, and to bless many with love and encouragement and hope -- including each and every one of her children and the entire Evans-Cyrus family. I am so grateful that grace by faith enabled Aunt Mac to fight the good fight of faith through Christ Jesus, and with the help of each and every one children, grandchildren, other family members; the Ebenezer Ministries family, and her wide community of friends and caretakers. Be blessed and know you are dearly loved. -- Irene and Michael Johnson

“ Mrs. Julia Evans loved God and her family. She was soft spoken yet determined to help whosoever needed her help. She was a faithful wife and loving mother. Julia was a great lady who believed in family. She worked efficiently and proudly many years with her husband John, her brothers and sister in laws, always willing to lend a hand or a shoulder. She epitomized the term Christian Lady. She will be missed but long remembered. Melva Viltz
