“ There must be rest for Julia, for I know there must be a place where Christians can go. There must be joy, unspeakable I'm told, Oh, after she did run this race.

After she crossed the swelling tide, there with her savior she shall abide. There she'll meet Jesus face to face. Oh, she did run this old Christian race.

“ A poem for Grand mama <3

Blowing Kisses To Heaven

*Blowing Kisses to Heaven
That's what I can do
Every time I want to say
Grandma... I Love You
Blowing Kisses to Heaven
I know that you love me
I am so blessed and so thankful
That God gave this precious Grandma to me
Everyone that met her
Claimed her as their own
Gentle, so caring, so giving, so kind
And we were privileged to have her with us
For such a very long time
Now she is receiving
Blessings so deserved
And every time I think of her
I'll blow kisses to Heaven
From my heart to her

What a sweet little lady! My mom (the late Cornelia Anderson of Fairhaven S.D.A. Church) loved her very much and would affectionately refer to her as "Lil Julia". I remember Mr. Moore would drop her off at church and when it was over he'd be out there waiting for her when service was over. May she rest in peace until that great getting up morning when she and my mom will see our Savior face to face!
