Juliet (Stribling) Phillips was born in Carthage, Mississippi, on January 23, 1926, to the union of Tom and Cynthia Stribling. She attended Howard and Southern University graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Social Psychology and had credits towards her Master's Degree in Education. Juliet was an active member of New Creation Church of God.

Juliet retired from General Motors and worked as a Teacher in the Flint School System. She was most known for 40 plus years as a Real Estate Sales Associate most time spent with Century 21 Woodland and Century 21 Halstead.

Juliet Phillips leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Betty (Earl) Gilcreast; son, Harold Brown; grandsons, Johnathan (Marie) Brown and James (Danielle) Phillips; granddaughter, Brittney Kizer; great-grandchildren, Johnathan Brown II; Giahanna Love, Gianni Love, Isreal Phillips and Malik Phillips; three nieces, a nephew and numerous other relatives and friends.

Juliet was blessed to have a blended family of grandchildren including: LaCahnya (Tony) Walker, Dr. Pamela Pearson and Natasha Gilcreast; and great grandchildren including, Dominic, Chantel, Shavar, Dynasia, Aasiyah, Malachi, Ishaq, Dante, Dyamnisha and Tameka; and five great-great-grandchildren.

Juliet was preceded in death by her sons, Christopher Brown, Gerald Stribling and James Phillips; parents, Tom and Cynthia Stribling; sister, Alice O'Neal; brother, Romeo Stribling; and best friend, Cecilia Chaney.

The family of Juliet Phillips would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for all of the love shown during this time of bereavement. We appreciate every prayer, card, phone call, and any other gestures of kindness. We are especially thankful for Juliet's caregiver, Ms. Beverly Julks, niece, Sheila Stribling, Genesys Pace Program, and Medical Team Hospice, Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home and the New Creation Church of God family.
