“ Words cannot express when one of your "Sandbox Friends" makes their transition from this earth. You always think you will see them again and we'll grow old together. However, we must realize that we won't and should cherish the moments spent while we're on this earth. Ju will be missed and I send my sincerest condolences to his family. I also pray that God comforts your hearts as you go through this difficult time.

“ My deepest condolences to his wife, children, siblings and the rest of his family. Julius a.k.a. Ju was my real way back since 1st grade to present day friend. I've been laughing, talking and hanging with him since I can remember. I have a treasure chest full of memories to share about him. He always had a smile, hug and some conversation every time I saw him. I loved my friend. He will be missed. Gone too soon.
