The son of Julius Handley II and Lydia Smiley Handley. Julius was the eighth child of twelve children. He graduated from Flint Central High School in May of 1976. After high school, he worked at Riegle Press which was down the street from our house on Root St. Julius also worked at Dairy Queen and Sorensen Gross. Sometimes he was ignored and sometime not. (smile) Julius loved going to the Lions football games, and the Pistons basketball games. Julius loved doing activities with the kids. He also barbecued his famous ribs for the Little League that Julius and Jeanette played for when they were kids. His favorite holiday was Christmas where he loved making his famous sweet potato pies and loved going to the Christmas tree farm and cut his own tree and decorate it. He was so elaborate with his decorations. His house and yard were filled with all kinds of decorations.
