Kamarie smiled no matter what she was up against. She enjoyed long conversations, rocking to music and watching "Sprout." Kamarie greeted everyone with bright eyes, "hi" and a smile. Most of all Kamarie loved being held by her mother and kissing on the cheeks.

Baby Girl Kamarie Monae' Flowers leaves to cherish her sweet memories: parents, Crystal Flowers and Jesse Parker; grandparents, Karen and Julious Strange, Frank and Lisa Triplett; a host of other relatives and friends.

The family would like to express special thanks to all those who cared for Kamarie in their own special way. Thank you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am always saddened when I hear of a parent losing their child to death. God's word the bible helps us to appreciate that it is not his will that children die. James 1:13 says: When under trial let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone." God does not "take" children from their parents, as some have been told. Jehovah 'yearns' to reunite children with their parents by means of the resurrection,. Mark Chapter 5 is very encouraging and I would like to encourage you to read it from your own bible but I will quote Mark 5:39-42. It say's: And, after stepping in, he (Jesus) said to them: "why are you causing noisy confusion and weeping The young child has not died, but is sleeping". At this they began to laugh scornfully at him. But, having put them all out, he took along the young child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the young child was. And, taking the hand of the young child, he said to her; "Tal'itha cu'mi,"which, translated, means: "Maiden, I say to you, Get up!". And immediately the maiden rose and began walking, for she was twelve years old. And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy. This is one of many situations in the bible that shows the hope for our dead loved one. If you would like to know more encouraging scriptures please visit jw.org. Again i am so sorry for your loss and I hope these scriptures have been encouraging.
