“ As I sit here in Florida as they prepare to lay Mrs Katherine to rest I reflect on her great memories that we shared. Our trips we took, especially to the White House and to visit Lenore (whom she love). She adopted our entire family as her own, she shared the holidays with us bringing her famous dishes she loved. and we loved her as a mother, grandmother and friend. Every time I went home I took her roses, because, she deserved to see them while she lived. I am going to really miss this woman, see you later.

“ When you think of Honey you think of a golden sweet substance and that is what I think about when I think about Aunt Honey. A beautiful sweet woman of substance with a golden heart. Aunt Honey will be missed for her guidance/advice she gave to others; of course her love of cooking and feeding her family and others; and just being a friend to all. I don't think she ever met a stranger for once anyone talked to her it was if you had known her for years. So family remember "Weeping may last through the night, but joy comes with the morning" and what a morning that will be when we reunite with her and other family members who have gone on before us to claim that mansion in the sky. I am so sorry I can not be there with you to celebrate her home-going but I am there in spirit. With love and condolences, Margo Collins-Draine, Waterloo, IA.

Thinking about my Great Aunt and how she was so loving and down to earth. How she loved cooking and catering. How she didn't bite her tongue and told jokes. We will truly miss her and all that she brought to the family. I love you Aunt Honey. To my family, hold on to GOD's powerful hand as we continue to keep one another in prayer through this time of sorrow. I love ya'll. I am a granddaughter of Aunt Honey's brother, the late Henry Caldwell.

“ I love this picture of Mrs. Katherine. I will miss our conversations on the phone talking about politics, family and the things that she loved most. One thing for sure she loved Barack Obama. Love you - Lenore from Virginia!

“ Dear Henley Family and Friends,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
