Keith Lamont Willis was born October 23, 1972, in Flint, Michigan, the son of Erie Yvonne (Worley) Willis and Elstanley Willis, Sr.

Keith attended Northwestern High School, where he built lasting friendships and memories that stayed with him throughout his life. At an early age, he accepted Christ and later became a member of Grace Emmanuel Baptist Church, where his faith helped guide his journey and shaped his outlook on life.

Keith maintained an independent lifestyle, taking on various odd jobs over the years. Through this, he stayed active and engaged, approaching life in his own way and on his own terms. He had a deep appreciation for classic cars, especially old-school models, and took pride in their style and history. Keith also had a special love for his dogs, who brought him companionship and joy. Above all, he cherished his family and friends. Keith valued time spent together, laughter shared, and the bonds that made life meaningful.

Keith Lamont Willis leaves to cherish his memories: his fiancée, Salina Liggins and her children, Rachimeer and Robert; mother, Erie Yvonne (Worley) Willis; 3 brothers, Bruce, Elstanley, Jr. and Sidney Willis; 9 nieces and nephews, Nicole Jagers, Trenton, Elstanley III, Devante, Elishia, Zion, Jordan, Sidney Jr. and Kingstan Willis; 7 great-nieces and great-nephews, Dashon Pride-Willis, Rylie Vines, Davhon, Devante Jr., Avah, Trenton Jr. and Zai Willis; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Keith was preceded in death by his father, Elstanley Willis, Sr.

Keith will be remembered for his kind heart, his laid-back nature, and the way he made people feel welcomed and appreciated. His presence will be deeply missed, but his memory will live on in the hearts of all who loved him.
