“ I would like to give my greatest condolences to this young man's family from the time that I met this wonderful individual my name is Nene. I would like to say that he was very very intellectual intelligent he had common sense it was like he was hit like he was here before like he had been here before had a wise soul. A sense of humor he will light up a room he will light up a mood he will make you feel at ease to vent. The time that I know this young man him and Pooh Bear they treated me such as family as a person not as what I chose to do in life but who I was in life with that being said with my greatest condolences to this Man's family my greatest condolences it is sad to see a great one for a high. It seems to me that the greatest was go too early. I will truly enjoy your honestly humbly say the greatest respect you never know when it's somebody's last time having a conversation with him you never know the last time you might see them always keep in mind you never know what a person is going through it's not always what you are going through I learned that from this young man Mr key I will truly miss you so we meet again you are truly missed and you are truly loved and I really want you to know that. Me Crystal and CeCe we love you and we still do we will never forget you. Once again and I would like to apologize to the friends and family I was not able to make it
