“ There are people that you meet in life that you just feel have the gentlest hearts and souls and Kent was one of them. I met Kent almost a year ago at work, and he was always so friendly and kind and always started the conversation with "hey Melissa how are you" and always ended the conversation with "thanks Melissa, I really appreciate you". You will definitely be missed Kent!! RIP

“ To Kent’s family and loved ones,

I was deeply saddened to hear of Kent’s passing. I had the privilege of working with him, and I’ll never forget the warmth and kindness he showed me during my first week on the job. At a company gym event, I found myself sitting alone, feeling out of place and unsure. Kent was the only one who came over, spoke to me, and asked if he could join me. We talked, laughed, and he even offered me a soda. That simple gesture meant the world to me.

From that day on, Kent and I always shared a friendly word or a joke. His presence was a bright spot in my workday, and I’m so grateful I got to share that story with him before he left us. You never truly know how someone’s small act of kindness can leave a lasting impact—and Kent’s did.

He was a beautiful soul, and he will be deeply missed.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
