“ Kenyyon,

It was really a sad day for ths STICU team when your Aunt Carolyn called to tell us the bad news. For those who did not know you and know what you had gone through all the months in VCU Medical Center. God know! We all watched you change your life around and want the good things out of life. I'm so sorry that you won't be back to see me, but I do know that God is good and you no longer have to suffer. To the family..my love and prayers to you all.

“ Kee, Yonnie and all those other names we lovingly called you. I miss you very much . If only I knew when I saw you last week at the pharmacy that it would be the last time I'd see U, I think I would've hugged and kissed you more and captured that beautiful smile (minus that GRILL) with the camera I always carry. But I know that U, Mama and Tealand are looking down on us and smiling. We will be keeping an eye on your mom and brothers so don't U worry about her. Just look in on us all from time to time. LOVE you ALWAYS. CAL
