We had two beautiful daughters together and I know she loved them with all her heart. I wish I knew of her passing much sooner. I am so sad for all that knew keke. She was definitely 1 of a kind. I will miss u 4 ever keke. My heart will always weep until I see u again. Joe Cemer. Kennedy and Lexus dad.*

“ I truly loved KeKe. I still do, and will miss her terribly, which I already have been. Its been hard to deal with her passing, finding out I loved her more then I once thought I did. Two weeks I been depressed, not hardly eating, and lack of sleep, and crying at times when I think of special moments I had with her. I know there are some people that think I did some things wrong towards KeKe, which are completely wrong. Some people just might be venting off hurt and anger of their sister, daughter, or friend. This isn't what KeKe would want you all to do. I know exactly what it feels like to lose a sister. I know it all too well, and it hurt like hell for a long time before I could handle the pain of my sister passing. She was a little younger then KeKe when she died. normally. I don't put that much personal, or semi-personal matters here. I mostly generalize my statement on family matters. It really doesn't belong here, I know this. But family not talking with me, end up adding this in here. Here is my email to get in touch with me.

I will give my number to those that might be interested in speaking to me in person.

With that said, I loved KeKe. I love you all, KeKe family, sisters, mama, and dad (Dorothy & Willie). Be mad with what I said here, but this is the real me, and not a bad person. I love you all even if you don't like me, or hate me. Its wrong to feel this way towards others. Some things, just gotta pray, and put it in the Lords hands. God is in control, even at times when we don't think so.

KeKe mom, and dad, sister, you know who I'm talking too, my sincere condolences to the family My love and prayers had been with you all, till after her funeral. I been praying everyday for two weeks that I been grieving, but I wasn't just praying for myself, but also for KeKe family, especially the little ones, and last but not least, myself, as its been very hard on me of her passing on. Even know, I find it hard to type without tears trying to come out of my eyes. I hope that you all find love and forgiveness saying this here, not just for yourself, by do it for KeKe as well.

There are a couple other things I like to say, but for sake of privacy of the family, I rather talk about it over phone or email.

*Till the day I see god, my love will be with you all, and the lady that's been close to my heart, KeKe. Love you sweetheart,
Ryan*

“ The loss of a loved one is one of the most difficult situations to face in life. It is comforting to know that God understands your grief and longs to use His almighty power to do something about it, for we are told at Acts 24:15: "There is going to be a resurrection." Take courage in this heartwarming promise from God, who cannot lie, (Titus 1:2) soon to come about for our dead loved one. Please accept my condolences.
