“ Thank you for a decade of friendship. We didn't talk often but when we did it was always laughter, music, and your newest venture! Your talent and your heart surpassed what others often gave you credit for but you remained true to yourself regardless. I know you'll be watching from heaven & cracking jokes. You're gone from this earth but I find comfort in the fact that you're never gone from my heart. My deepest sympathies go out out to the Fleming family and to all the people Kevin touched during his life that felt too short.
