“ I'm going to miss you so much. You named my baby "Shaky Fay" I remember all the nights you would come in from work and get her to watch cowboy movies with you. You would always say "hey sister-in-law how you doing". I'm going miss hearing that. You're at peace now, so rest in God's care. Much love, from your first sister Rennie

“ To the Hall Family,

I am sorry for your lost. May the Lord be with you in these times. Kevin was a friend that I enjoyed knowing, and I appreciated his friendship. Just remember that he's in the comfort of God's hands without any pain.

“ I knew your father for only a short time. But, what I saw was a soft spoken man that said alot with only a few words.
He was the definition of the phrase "Cool, Calm, and Collected".

You and your Dad seemed to have the kind of relationship that many fathers and daughters seek. That of mutual respect and admiration, humor, and genuine enjoyment to be around each other.

It is better to have loved and lost, than to have never loved at all.

I am sorry for your loss.
