“ Kevin was a great guy and a better friend. I've known him for over a decade and was very proud to call him a friend. I had just seen him less than a week prior and had spoken with him on Saturday. He was always in good spirits and a very positive person, even when times were tough. I'm really going to miss him.

“ Kevin, you always knew how to make the children smile. I don't think you ever let go of that childhood super power: imagination! You were one of the most intelligent men I knew and lived far beneath your potential. I thank God that you now know how much you meant to Him and just how valuable and necessary you were on this earth. Rest assured God will continue to take care of our daughter. Your "boo-boo baby girl" will be just fine. Rest now, Kevin.
