“ I wish you could call me or text me one more time , I wish you could call me on your break asking me what I'm cooking or how my day going ... wish we could argue about me not cleaning my pockets before you wash my clothes , i wish we could sit in the basement with the music loud listening to Al green reminiscing about granny and old times now, I'm sitting around reminiscing about you and the memories we shared .I'm missing you like crazy, I never thought I'll have to live life without you .All I ever wanted to do was to make you proud .although you're gone everything is still set, I moved away from flint , soon to be a registered nurse just like we talked about. It's not a day that goes by that I don't think of you . I'll forever live with the life lessons you've taught me . You taught me how to live but you didn't teach me how to live without you ! While everybody life went back to being normal im stuck, im hurting but I promise you im going to live life with no regrets and make you proud .You needed granny but I needed you. I love you more than I showed 💕💕 .

“ My heart goes out to Kevin's sweet family. I have many good memories of Kevin growing up across the street from Nick, and Stacee and directly across from Rod. They played together and ate together, and our families were close and loving. May the peace of God's Holy Spirit penetrate your hearts and souls, in the mighty name of Jesus! Please know that we love you all.
