“ Eddie Murphy is who you strongly reminded me of when I first met you in the Regency, so many years ago Kevin. So much so that it became your nickname by many around us. You were a dear friend of mines and my children. We played cards, talked and laughed quite s bit. You were such a jokester and very comical. I have so many fond memories of your presence in our lives. It was so amazing to see that you turned your life over to Christ and lived a God-fearing life. Although my children were very young, when I mentioned you'd passed away; they both knew who you were when I said, "Eddie Murphy!" Sleep in heavenly peace my dear friend. May our God rest your soul. Extending my heartfelt condolences to your wife, children, and entire family. "Peace be Still"💔🙏😭
