“ My family and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your love one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. I found words of encouragement from God's word the Bible. The Bible speaks of death being an enemy that God never intended mankind to experience. In Isaiah 25:8, God promises that in the future he will actually swallow up death forever. You can put all your trust in God's promises. You and your family are in my prayers.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of our love one. May God give you all what you need now and In the future with precious memories. We are lighting a pink candle that represents this the month of breast cancer awareness. Please know that God knows your heart and just tell Him what you are feeling and come away knowing that Keyla is at rest and in no more pain. May those of us left behind find a way to let go and let God. May we find a way to help the younger ones live through this moment in time. Peace.*
