“ Dear Lorick Family, Please accept my most humble sympathies to your family at this time. The grief of losing a loved one is unbearable at times. There is so much comfort found in God's Word that assures us of his loving care. In the book of Isaiah 26:8 that promise assures us that God will act to bring an end to the suffering of mankind because of sickness and death. Please let of your good memories bring you comfort in the days ahead.

To the Lorick family my deepest condolences. I met Ms. Lorick a couple of years ago at the Department of Human Services we use to pray each morning before we started work. Kimberly was a beautiful spirit. Whenever someone loses a love one I always say, "To God be the glory for all he has done." Know this that your love one just made a transition from this life to a better life and now she can rest AMEN.
