It's only natural to be thinking of you, an uncle who was a blessing to our family.

I will miss our many short conversations--you being a man of few words.

Love you Uncle, but you know that.

You have reunited with our family in Heaven! Rejoice!

Your Niece and Great-Niece,

“ I have missed my talks with Mr. Hatchett, (while sitting on the bench in the back foyer after church), me waiting for Greg and him waiting for Kathy. Boy did we have "good conversations"! I love me some him. He would say, "Gull, you got you a good one. But, he got him a good one too"! The ladies would come by smiling, speaking and shaking his hand. I would elbow him so slightly and he would laugh and say, "Get on out of here"! Always so nice and pleasant with that smile on his face. Take your rest Mr. Hatchett! We'll see you in that great gettin up morning! Kevin, Kathy, and Kay, I'm so proud of the way you took such good care of your dad. He lacked for nothing. Your entire family are in our thoughts and prayer's. We love you!
