“ Happy Father's Day dad. I love you and I wish you were here to celebrate with me. I just turned 23 and my kids are so big now. I wish they could have met their grandpa. If I knew this was gonna happen, I would have worked my ass off to fly you out to Vegas to stay with me. Cause you'd still be here.

“ Another one of your birthdays passed and now this year I'm gonna be 21. I wish you were here to celebrate with me daddy. My first son is gonna be 4 a week after my birthday. My second one is gonna be 2 on July 16th. And I'm having another one in March. I wish you were around to see them. They would have loved their PawPaw. LoL. You would have loved my baby's father unless he was making me cry. Y'all both love sports. Y'all can both name any player, old or young, and their stats. It's just sad cause you would have only been 43 this year. You were so young and had a whole life ahead. They not only took you from your present family. They took you from the future one too.

“ I so often think of you and what we shared. I appreciate and am very grateful to have known you, laughed with you, surprised you, made you laugh and to have loved you. Time has not allowed me to forget and my love and appreciation for you has not diminished. My heart still melts at the sight of your picture. My tear ducts remain active when I think of how much I truly do miss you, your smile, your smirk, us wrestling, our conversations and just being able to be in your space. Still loving you, KAP.....Danielle
