“ *To the Muse Family,
I send my deepest sympathy for the lost of Terry. On this day, Jan. 24, 2013 @ 9:55pm, I learned that Terry had passed away. I am so sorry! Terry was loved here in Detroit, and I will truly miss her. I can hear her fussing right now. Terry gave me my first job as a Graduate Nurse in 1990 in Acute Care Dialysis. I remember her coming to me at a dinner for nurses getting ready to graduate. She walked right up to me and said, "You are going to be a dialysis nurse--acute care, and walked away. She came back, and said you are going to work for me here at Hurley." It's funny because I could not acquire a position on any unit at Hurley. The recruiter said, "No positions are available on that unit", and kept saying this to me when I inquired about a unit. So, I took the position in Acute Care Hemodialysis, Terry's unit. About a year later I learned that each unit I inquired about had many positions available! What a mentor she became for me, and she pushed me to have the passion to love Nephrology as a whole.*

“ Dearest Muse Family,
Please accept my sympathies toward your family at this sorrowful time. I am a Flint native and it saddens me to hear of your loss. I hope that you will find comfort in the promise found at Isaiah 25:8 where God says " he will swallow up death forever and wipe all tears from all faces." These words bring comfort. Thank you.

Very Sincerely,

Tasha Brooks

“ To the family of Lacrelle Muse I send my deepest sorrow. Such a beautiful woman gone too soon! May you receive comfort in knowing she's just sleeping and will be awoken in the near future, according to Jesus' words in John 11:11-14,43,44 & John 5:28,29 in the bible. If you will read those verses you will read about an actual resurrection or awakening from death and how it will happen in the future. Jesus' Father, Jehovah never wanted his creations to die and yearns to end dying completely. (Rev 21:4) So don't sorrow her leaving is only for a short time.

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.
