“ One of the memories have of Flyod is when I thought I wanted to box. I was about 10 or 11 at the time and Floyd was like i know where you can go, if you think you want box. He took me down to Berston Feild House. When we got down there I was terrified to walk in. With the help of Flyod we walked in and I wasn't that scared any more. There were so many lesson I learned that day and they still stick with me until this day. That the kind of person he was. Always willing to help and encourage us to be whatever we wanted to be. That was a defining moms for me. It helped me to become the man I am today.

I love you Floyd!

“ Happy Father's Day Dad! Yesterday wasn't the best yet we made the best of it... Remembering back to one of our last conversations you said, "Everything will be ok and it will work out how it's suppose to." I didn't understand what "it" was at that time but I truly believe you were encouraging me for the days ahead. I love and miss you dearly and wish our time together didn't end so abrupt. I pray you rest in peace and continue to be with us always.

“ Happy Father's Day, Dad. I miss you so much. Words can not describe the pain I been feeling since you been gone. I know you are in a better place and I am so thankful to have you as my father for the past 33 years. You have guided and taught me so much over the years. Such as driving a stick shift and automatic car at the age of 12, changing a tire, replacing brake pads and oil changes. Besides all of those things you also taught me how to be hard worker, a leader and a compassionate and caring person. I love you so much.
