“ I am so sorry for your loss. I found this scripture among many to be comforting. It is found at James 1:13. It says: "When under trial, let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone." This scripture helped me appreciate that it was not God's will that my loved one had died. Job 14:14,15 helps me appreciate that Jehovah has a yearning to reunite children to their parents by means of the resurrection hope, and lovingly has made provision to do so. I have left my e-mail address if you would like to know more. Again I am deeply sorry for you loss.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies, it's very painful. But the Bible talks about doing away with this pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort, comfort your family at this time.

“ To the family: Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we hold in our hearts forever. (author unknow) I wish to extend my sincere condolences to you on the loss of your precious baby, LaJada. Although I don't know you personally, it still pained my heart to read of you baby's death. I Just wanted to say that our Loving Heavenly Father, truly understands your pain and cares about you (1Peter 5:7) He yearns to reunite childern with their parents. he has already made provision to heal your broken hearts by restoring your loved one to you by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). I realize that at this time words offer little comfort, but I hope in the days ahead you will think seriously about these Scriptures, and the wonderful hope that God offers... to see our loved one again. (Acts 24:15) My deepest sympathy to you.

“ To the family,
My heart goes out to you during this time of sorrow. Please take comfort in the heartwarming promise found at Acts 24:15 that states, "I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". This reveals that God not only understands your pain, but that he will soon bring relief to those who suffer the loss of a loved one.
My deepest sympathy to you.
