“ I am sitting here still stunned about the news of your passing. I haven't seen you since Aunt Betty's homegoing at least 2-3 years ago, so I know it must be tuff for those who were in your circle daily. I do have alot of fond memories though. You were a sweet child and I am sure that your becoming an adult did not change that. Lord, please comfort Linda her brothers, and especially her children and everyone else.

I can't form words at this moment, I am in disbelief that you are no longer with us Keda. I pray for strength for your children, mother, grandmother, and brothers to get through this tough time.

I love you family,

Teka
