KEELS, Mr. LaMarcus Jarrell - Age 49, passed away Tuesday, April 21, 2026, at McLaren-Flint. Family hour 10:00 AM Friday, May 1, 2026, at Word of Life Christian Church, 460 W. Atherton Rd., with funeral service commencing at 11:00 AM Pastor Delrico Lloyd, officiating. Interment Evergreen Cemetery, 3415 E. Hill Rd., Grand Blanc, MI. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the church 10:00 AM Friday. Mr. Keels will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd., and may be viewed from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM Thursday with family present from 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM to receive friends.

LaMarcus Jarrell Keels was born on January 30, 1977, in Flint, Michigan, the son of Mary Keels and Carl Word. LaMarcus graduated from Flint Central High School in 1995, where he played basketball, baseball and football. He attended Eastern Michigan University, in Ypsilanti, Michigan, where he majored in Architecture, Engineering, and Design. LaMarcus later pursued a true passion and enrolled in the Flint Institute of Barbering. His decision to attend barber school would not only transform his own life, but it would later prove to have a lasting impact on countless others.

LaMarcus was known to many as a barber who devoted more than 30 years to his craft. For more than three decades, his chair was more than a place to get a haircut; it was a place for mentorship, connection, laughter and counseling. His dedication and level of detail not only transformed how people looked; he left people uplifted by his contagious spirit, and genuine care. The camaraderie he shared with his fellow barbers at the barbershop, A Kut-Above, could be felt by those that frequented the shop, creating an atmosphere of brotherhood and community.

LaMarcus enjoyed working in the community and volunteering with organizations such as Big Brothers Big Sisters of Flint and Brothers of Wolf Ridge. He was a huge sports fan; his “favorite” team was the Green Bay Packers..... And (Michigan State football & basketball). He enjoyed volunteering with the Flint Community Schools in coaching linebackers for Flint Northern High School. He was an avid golfer, bowler, and loved investing in the stock market, while encouraging others to do so, a jack of all trades with a gift to build things from scratch. In his downtime he enjoyed watching documentaries, Columbo, The Bernie Mac Show, Sanford and Son, and The Cosby Show along with his favorite podcast Ma$e & Camron. He was a great cook, loved to barbecue, and was a jokester among family and friends, a “wiz” in mathematics, aspired to develop his own water company, and a love of tailoring. Marcus also loved to encourage others with his mantra, “If you are going to pursue something, be the best at it, be the best they have ever seen.” He knew no stranger and gave of himself freely until the very end, by donating his organs to The Gift of Life of Michigan.

LaMarcus Jarrell Keels leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Syreeta “CeCe” Moore Keels who loved and cared for him; daughter, Morgan Keels of Flint; mother, Mary (John) Wilkes of Pontiac, MI; father, Carl Word of Dallas, GA; 3 sisters, Renita (Moses) Bingham of Flint, MI, LaTanya Pruitt of Southfield, MI and Vania Word of Battle Creek, MI; brother, Jerel Keels of Chicago, IL; 3 nieces and 2 nephews; uncle, Larry Keels of Flint; sister-in-law, Kendra (DeWayne) Davis of Upper Marlboro, MD; brother-in-law, Anthony Harrison of Lansing MI; step-sisters, Yorka (Jeremiah) Tutstone and Tiffany (Reome)

Thach and children; special brother/cousin, Eric Keels; numerous other relatives (Keels, Word and Conway families) and friends too numerous to mention.

LaMarcus was preceded in death by both maternal and paternal grandparents; 4 aunts; 3 uncles; and mother-in-law.

The family would like to give special thanks to the McLaren Regional Medical Center Neurological ICU Department, The University of Michigan Department of Cardiac Surgery, Dr. Robert Hawkins, The Cardiology Clinic Frankel Cardiovascular Center University of Michigan, Dr. Kenneth Jamerson, and Nicole Wesley CRNA of McLaren-Flint.

We appreciate each and every one of you who has given your time, your resources, or simply your ear. The love you've shown has been overwhelming in the most beautiful way. Truly, you are a blessing beyond measure.

“ Syreeta,

The question you and your daughter maybe wrestling with right now, is how do we move on?

I implore you to please start by remembering how fondly Marcus loved you and your daughter Morgan. Sitting comfortably in a barbershop chair as one of his most amusing clients, I had the honor of a front row seat, observing the unadulterated joy and delight in Marcus's eyes as they danced when he unapologetically revealed his deep affection for you and how he never doubted "the sun rose and set" on Morgan. He fondly and routinely reminisced about difficult "Daddy-Daughter" talks with her that weren't always easy or always pleasant, but necessary and essential for her development as a young lady. He insisted every talk concluded with the affirmation she was special, attacking every insecurity while reassuring her he will never stop being her perennial protector. Marcus took pride in coming alongside of his daughter boldly modeling unconditional love for her as only "a present and active" Father could, should and would. We are all witnessing the investment and the fruit of his and your labor "today" in this beautiful, highly intelligent young lady whose future is so very bright and promising.

For all of us as believers, the Bible offers counsel and wisdom during this time in (Psalm 23:3), it states, "He restores my soul."

Right now that may sound pretty inadequate, insensitive and a cute Sunday School response because your soul feels numb, maybe even dead and unresponsive. That's why you must wait and embrace God's promise that, "He in fact will restore." As difficult as it is, don't waste this season of loss. In it, God has unique gifts and blessings for you, although lost and understandably blurred by your tears right now. Ask Him in faith what they are, and then take firm hold of them knowing He will restore your joy to life and heal the hurt.

I'll say and continue to say this often, because I believe it with my entire being.

You can trust God with this indescribable pain and suffering.

He doesn't just care about your condition....He can do something about it.

I promise.

“ This Dude Right Here, HILARIOUS!!!!!!!!!! Man we have had so many countless, real conversations about life, manhood, lately in investing. We talked a lot about being a responsible man also. This guy is the Truth. Man this dude right here, HILARIOUS. Soooooo many memory's, I cannot just think of one. Wait, the last time he had cut my hair, we were was over Eric house. Man, the way Keels, Roman, and Eric was at each other it took at least 2 hours to finish cutting my hair because I was laughing so hard, them 3 had my stomach hurting. so funny I was going to record them and put in on Facebook to start there comedy show's. I was going to name them 69 East, like the comedy group 75 South. Another times was that he had asked me how do I pronounce Ramon's name. Is it pronounced Ramon or Ramond? I WAS IN TEARS!!!!!!!!!! With this guy it is never a dull moment. I could not wait to get to my barber appointments for the comedy show. Appreciate you Sir, Love You MANE, and it was my pleasure rocking with you. Appreciate you again Brother, GOD BLESS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ To the family of LaMarcus Keels,

LaMarcus was not only an admirable and fellow classmate/alum of FCHS class of 1995, but known widely throughout the Flint community as well.

We are grateful to have been able to celebrate with him during our most recent 30-year high school class reunion in August 2025, a time many of us have reflected on most recently.

This is the epitome of "Gone too soon" yet his legacy within the community as well as through his family leaves an impact that will never be forgotten.

We send our deepest condolences. We stand with you and will continue to uplift your family during this difficult time.
