“ Working with you and getting to know you was indeed a pleasure, you meant a lot to me and helped a lot of people here in Lexington. To the family, I need to tell you that Larry was a true trusted friend who did a great deal of service work and was dedicated to helping other people. You should be very proud of Larry, he was a wonderful man who meant so much to all of us.

“ To the Bradley family. We were truly sadden to hear of the passing of Larry. Let not you heart be troubled. God has placed his loving arms around Larry and removed his pains. He will forever be loved by many. We grew up together, and there could not have been a more loving and caring family as the Bradley's. He often questioned me and Lynn on our intentions. I always felt he would have tried to whip us if Mr. bradley had not stepped in. lol. Larry kept a close eye on us. He was a very caring brother and friend. May he now rest in Peace. Love you all.

“ I feel so blessed to have had the opportunity to visit with Larry on a couple occasions before he went back to MI. I know he maintained a sweet spirit and he knew it was all in God's hands. He loved his wife and all of his family. I just can't help to believe that because he knew we all loved him he could go in peace when God called him home. Rest in peace cousin Larry. It's your time to shine. Gone but never forgotten...you will always be loved.

“ Larry...I can clearly see sheepish grin that often left me wondering...what are you up to. Did you just get caught in something you shouldn't be doing? It took me a long time to figure out that it was just your way of responding to the embarrassment of any attention paid to you. Well bro...I love that smile and I'll remember it always. What a blessing it is to be part of a family where love triumphs and love prevails. I'm thankful that you are in a better place...filled with love and filled with laughter. Smile on bro, forever more. Lynn
