“ I remember all the times as we were growing up when Larry, Richard, Kenny, and I hung out together. Those times are just memories now, gone but not forgotten. I offer my condolences to the family as they journey down this road yet again. I pray for the Lord to lift you, guide you, hug you in His arms of grace, comfort, and mercy as the incoming year prepares its arrival as there is one less loved one to share it with yet one more angel in heaven to rejoice in it.

We will keep you in our prayers as the days continue to turn into nights, and the nights continue to turn into weeks, the weeks into months, and the months into yet another year.

“ I will miss seeing your smiling face on Sunday morning and you saying get over here where is my hug. When I first started coming to church with my Larry at Stewart school, we would sit in front of you and Gloria every Sunday and then when we moved to Coldwater Rd we flipped flopped and sat behind you. You would always asked if I had been behaving myself and was I treating Larry good. Rest on my friend and know that I will continue to take care of the other Larry. “ My memories of my cousin Larry stretch from childhood to adulthood, and they all start with him teasing me and making me smile. We spent many Sundays visiting Flint with our parents, and enjoyed the times when Aunt Thelma and Uncle Peter would bring the Royster family to Detroit. Larry's love was wide enough to include my husband Paul, whom he treated just like a brother on the basketball court. “ Uncle Larry was an amazing man. He was fair, loving and real. My children (his godchildren) loved him so much. He always checked on their grades and made them feel loved and important! For the past few wks their prayer was for the Lord to make him comfortable and let him rest. They will cherish all the memories of his visits, going out to eat, birthdays, holidays and just him period. Lord thank you for the time and memories and the answered prayer. He is more than comfortable now and can truly rest! We love you Unc! Daysha, Dre'lyn, Cailyn & Carla Stewart! We are praying for the Royster family!
